

Creative Arts Therapist - Contract

Epiphany Center, a non-profit in San Francisco, provides client-centered care to a diverse population of children, women, and families who are the most vulnerable in our society. Our purpose is to strengthen family life and to enhance the physical, social-emotional, intellectual and spiritual growth of each person in our care.

We are seeking a Creative Arts Therapist or practitioner to facilitate 6-8 week groups of 5 or more women at Epiphany Center. Classes will be taught for one hour on Monday, Wednesday or Thursday during one of the following time slots:

10:25 am - 11:20 am

11:20 am - 12:30 pm

1:15 pm – 2:15 pm

2:15 pm – 3:15 pm

We are a residential treatment facility serving women dealing with trauma and addiction. Many of our clients come from jail or have been homeless. Several of our clients are mothers. We have a child therapy component within our program.

Practitioners with experience and a desire to support underserved women will enjoy nurturing the transformative power of the creative arts at The Epiphany Center. The creative arts can be such a valuable tool for people struggling with addiction and working on recovery.

We're located near the panhandle in San Francisco. Please get in touch to discuss rates and learn more about our therapeutic objectives for the group.

This is a great opportunity to work with amazing women, eager to access their creativity and healing capacity. Available to MFT, MFTI.

To apply for this position, please submit your resume with a cover letter to HRJobs@TheEpiphanyCenter.org
